A WORD ABOUT GLOVES.

The quality is not a more important consideration than the fit. The best quality gloves will not wear well if they do not fit well. A glove to fit well must be cut to conform to the hand. The hands, like the feet of different individuals, vary greatly in shape. A great variety of styles and sizes is necessary in order to properly fit the various shapes and sizes of hands. The Palaia Royal claims by far the greatest variety in this city and therefore is better enabled to perfectly fit all shapes of hands than any other establishment. That this is generally admitted is evident by the number of experts here to fit the gioves. Besides having the greatest variety the Palais Royal quotes the lowest prices for best Gloves. This comes of direct importations and a cash business.

A UNIQUE VEIL COLLECTION.

A drummer—a representative of one of the leading wholesaie houses, one who has occasion to visit the leading retail establishment of the east, says:

"Your collection of veils is unique."

This collection includes over 300 different styles of Black Veils alone. One of the newest has a close mesh thickly covered with chemile dots. It is $1.40 a yard, but being double width less quantity than usual is required.

another stylish and becoming Veil has open mesh, forming diamonds, supporting many dots. $1.24 a From Paris is the Variegated Veil of black net, with dots shading from purple to lavender and hunter's green to stem green. 30c a yard.

And here is the latest Mourning Veiling of plain Brussels, with pleating of net two inches wide.

The knowledge has become very general throughout the Treasury Department that Secretary Carlisis intends to fill the places in the unclassified errvice now held by residents of the District with appointments from states whose legal quots of appointments is not complete. the edict has gone forth and one by one the

The feeling of unessiness has extended to the clerks in the classified service who are credited to the District. As rumor has included these clerks in the classified service who are credited to the District, as rumor has included these among the number whose services are to be dispensed with. The best information obtainable does not substantiate this belief, for although Mr. Carlisle is opposed to the large District allowance of appointments, he will not make dismissals in this class to correct the evil. Those who are seeking appointments from the District may as well spare themselves the trouble, as until the state quotas are increased to the proper limit residents of the District will have little or no chance to receive appointments. prices to secure a first-class portrait. Accordingly, upon his recommendation, the railroad company was directed to remove the wires at once. No attention, however, was paid to the order. The attention of the Commisioners was once more called to the attorney as to the proper mode of procedure to compel compliance on the part of the railroad company. The attorney, in an opinion rendered today, says that "while these wires are unused and not charged with electricity they are harmless and there would be no object under such circumstances in having them removed. The memorial states that "the government printing office has been for a great many years under the domination and control of an organization called the International Typographical Union to such an extent that it has been practically impossible for a citizen other than a member of such organization to obtain employment. A rich line of moldings, including the latest pat terns of white and gold. First-class work and low ber of such organization to obtain employment

> It asserts that under this domination more than four-fifths of the printers of the United States are defrauded of their rights under the Constitution to seek employment in the government printing office.

"We do not ask," says the memorial, "the appointment of a public printer from our ranks, but would most respectfully suggest that said office be filled by a competent citizen, who is not allied in any manner or liable to be con-trolled by any organization of printers, as we believe that all classes of printer-citizens in our eloved country have an equal right to repr sentation in the government printing office.'

The Case of Mr. Eckels. Whether it was through a mistake or with intention aforethought that President Cleveland nominated Mr. Eckels to be controller of currency it is said that he will stand by the nomination and not withdraw the name. If this statement is true there is almost certain to be statement is true there is almost certain to be statement is true there is almost certain to be a fight precipitated in the Senate, and a prominent democratic Senator is authority for the assertion that Mr. Eckels cannot be confirmed.

It is learned that the President was largely influenced in making this appointment on ac-count of the speeches made on financial questions during the campaign by Mr. Eckels which showed a clear familiarity with and understanding of finance, besides being a good lawer.

Senator McPherson, a member of the Senate finance committee, called at the White House and is said to have informed the President on the part of the committee that Mr. Eckles could not be confirmed.

IT WAS "NO CONTEST."

New ORLEANS, April 7 .- The fight between Andy Bowen of New Orleans and Jack Burke of Houston for the light-weight championship of the south at the Olympic Club last night was decided "no contest" by the referce at the end of the one hundred and tenth round.

In the latter part of the fight the men simply walked around the ring and made few attempts at fighting. The audience kept up a constant tumult of whistling and cat calls. At the beginning of the ninety-third round Bowen showed a little life and occasionally landed his right on Burke's body. His blows, however, lacked force and at no time did Burke fear a knockout. The Texas lad's hands were in bad shape and practically useless for hitting. He only kept his arms moving in order to keep Bowen on the alert.

In the ninety-fourth round Referee Duffy was obliged to leave the ring on account of of Houston for the light-weight championship

HARVARD TIED.

Highlands Was Ineffective and the Crim Were Nearly Beaten. The uncertainties of the national game were never more thoroughly demonstrated than in yesterday's contest between Pennsylvania and Harvard. At the end of the third inning the score was 9 to 0 in Pennsylvania's favor. When Pennsylvania went to bat in the last half of the ninth the score was 12 to 11 in Harvard's favor, and when it was all over the score stood 12 to 12. Both teams got out of various small holes during the course of the game and both made a stein Rogers, to STUART PHELPS JOHNSON. number of costly "chump" plays. wild and ineffective and Corbett could not hold his speed. The result was that at the end of three innings Pennsylvania had made nine runs. Then Capt. Frothingham removed this pair and substituted Catcher Upton and Pitcher Wiggins. They were much steadier and there-after the Quakers only made three runs, although they got nine hits off Wiggins' delivery. Reese, who was pitching for Pennsylvania, was hit on the arm by a pitched ball in the third in-ning. This may have caused him to lose his effectiveness. At any rate he was hit after that, and Filbert, a change pitcher, went in.

HARVARD-GEORGETOWN.

The Ball Game Will Be Played This Afternoon.

The base ball game between the nines representing Georgetown and Harvard colleges will be played at the National Base Ball Park this afternoon regardless of the weather. Owing to Department this morning in regard to the duties of that office. He has not yet been commisthe high rank of Harvard's nine and the fact that it played such a close game with the University of Pennsylvania, who defeated Yale, who played a close game with Georgetown, there is unusual interest in this afternoon's contest. It has not yet been decided who will pitch for Harvard. Jack Highlands, who has been the nine's great mainstay was wild and ineffective yesterday, but he may be all right today. The nines will be placed as follows:

Manager O'Rourke went over to Philadelphia yesterday morning to see President Wagner and Maul took his place in yesterday's game.

Charleston got away with the Spiders yesterday at Charleston to the tune of 3 to 1, and the day at Charleston to the tune of 3 to 1, and the whole city is throwing up its hat in consequence. The good play of the day before attracted a large attendance to the grounds, but nobody expected the result. Young and Zimmer officiated for Cleveland and Gale and Colcough and Snyder for the locals. The Clevelands got only two hits off Colcough, one by Young and the other by Virtue.

Chicago defeated Atlanta yesterday by 9 to 6 and Augusta defeated Savannah 6 to 2.

Manager Chapman of Buffalo says: "Jack Rowe has been signed to play second base and will probably be made captain. I am negotiating with a third baseman, and, if successful in getting him, his playing will open the eyes of a good many people. A fall of snow prevented the opening of the base ball season at Boston yesterday between the Bostons and Brown University. A Wonderful Sprinter Found.

As Owen and Jewett have retired from the running track there is considerable curiosity manifested as to who the next star in the west for sprinting honors is likely to be. The Cieve-land Athletic Club will put forward a young man named C. W. Stage. He is a slim, rather deep-chested youngster, a natural-born sprinter, and has shown 100 yards in less than eleven

The Cash Prize Cycling League. The managers of the Cash Prize Cycling League meet today in the Astor House in New York. It is probable that a schedule will be adopted. New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Buffalo and Troy will be on the circuit. Nu-Buriale and Troy will be on the circuit. Numerous applications have been received from smaller towns. Baltimore and Washington may probably hold professional meets. Chicago is out this season at all events, as the L. A. W. has secured the base ball park, and a track is now building. A track is in course of construction at Eastern Park, Brooklyn.
